Dmitri Sorkin is a direct pure-blood descendent of Russian immigrants that first colonized the world of Tikonov. This colony eventually led to the formation of the interstellar empire known as the Grand Tikonov Union. Though it has been eight hundred years since the Grand Tikonov Union lost its battle for supremacy and was subsumed by more larger, more powerful empires, hard-line decedents of the original colonists still talk about those lost glory days. Even now, they talk of someday taking back Tikonov and reclaiming their rightful place among the stars.

Dmitri couldn't care less. As quickly as he could leave his parents and what he calls "their interminable, worthless chatter," he did so, booking passage into Prefecture III. There, he found a cause – and more importantly one that he believes might actually succeed in his lifetime – that of Katana Tormark and her Dragon's Fury. His parents' "endless chatter" did do one thing for him: it primed him to crave a mission, suiting him perfectly for The Brotherhood.

Though green and still learning the ropes, it appears that the now-disinherited Sorkin will make a fine vehicle pilot. He's young enough that, presented with a more attractive cause – ours – he could be turned and molded to our purposes.

Along with the JES Tactical Missile Carrier, the JESII Strategic Missile Carrier is Joint Equipment Systems attempt to recapture the specialty market of support missile carriers after losing it in the 3050s. However, unlike the JES Tactical Carrier which, due to its specialized design, was not well received, the JESII Strategic Carrier was universally accepted. Even though the design premiered right at the end of the Word of Blake Jihad, every House, and even some Periphery realms and Clans, purchased significant quantities of the design.

DC229-36RJ was originally fielded in the Free Worlds League and fought on the world Regulus as two claimants for the House Marik throne clashed. It went on to see combat on several other League worlds, including Marik. When elements from the Free Worlds Legionnaires accidentally jumped across The Republic border, all of their equipment was seized before they were repatriated. The current pilot, Dmitri Sorkin, has named his vehicle "Hellfire."
